

I fail to understand why you would consider undermining the NJ Do Not Call List. I believe I have the right to opt out from unwanted calls from telemarketers. These people provide no worthwhile service and I refuse to consider purchasing anything they offer. To resolve any problem of State vrs Fed, I suggest you tighten your regulation to reflect the protection NJ currently offers its citizens.